Oh, oh deep water.

Black and cold, like as the night.

| A /// | B /// | E /// | A /// |

I stand with arms wide open, turn the wheels still right.

| F[#]m /// | B /// | E /// | % |

I'm a stranger in the eyes of the Maker.

Verse 2 I could not see for the fog in my eyes.
I could not feel for the fear in my life.
Across the great divide in the distance I saw the light
John Baptise walking to me with the Maker.

Verse 3 A body is bent and broken.
By love and dangerously.
I can't work the fields of Abraham, turn my head away.
I'm a stranger in the eyes of the Maker.

Verse 4 Brother John, have you seen the homeless daughter?
Standing there with broken wings.
I have seen flaming souls, they're over East of Eden
Burning in the eyes of the Maker.
