I grew up in ragged gingham where love is a sacred thing
 You grew up in silk and satins where love's just a passing game
 I know you've never loved me, oh I know I's just a fool
 To think your pride would let you live love by the golden rule

Silver threads and golden needles cannot mend this heart of mine
 And I dare not drown my sorrows in the warm glow of your wine
 You can't buy my love with money, 'cause I ain't never been that kind
 Silver threads and golden needles cannot mend this heart of mine

Lead = Verse

Verse 2 I don't want your lonely mansions, with a tear in every room
 All I want's the love you promised once beneath the haloed moon
 But you think I should be happy with your money and your name
 Sit alone and bide my sorrows while you play love's cheating game
