

Love in the Afternoon

Intro | F E^b C / | B^b F A^{bΔ7} / | A^{bΔ7} / / / |

Verse 1 | C / / / | % | E^bo⁷ / / / | % |
| Dm / / / | F / G / | C / / / | % |

Love; Love in the afternoon.

Outside the window, an organ grinder's tune.

Verse 2 Rhythm, wine, touch of Jamaica; Twilight time with a Kingston lady.
All the time in the world for me and that girl.

Verse 3 Sweet, she sang sweetly; Come back soon.
Come back for more of that love in the afternoon.

Verse 4 Breezes blow by me; In the afternoon.
She sings sweetly an organ grinder's tune.

Chorus | Em / / / | % | F / / / | C / / / |
| Em / / / | % | FE D C | A^{bΔ7} / / / |

Finally recovered from last year's round Of bye, bye baby blues
All I crave today is love in the afternoon.

Verse 1 Love; love in the afternoon.
Repeated She sings sweetly an organ grinder's tune

Intro | F E^b C / | B^b F A^{bΔ7} / | A^{bΔ7} / / / |

Lead Multiple Verses

Chorus Gone with the moon and any old trouble, it can't leave too soon.
Trouble's no part of what I want, 'Specially in the afternoon.

Verse 5 Singin'; Sleepin' till noon
Wakin' to make more love in the afternoon.

| Dm / / / | F / G / | C / / / | % |

Repeat to end Wakin' to make more love in the afternoon.

Outro | F E^b C / | B^b F A^{bΔ7} / | A^{bΔ7} / / / | C ~ ~ ~ ~ ~